“Racconti in inglese per principianti – 10 storie piacevoli per imparare l’inglese e migliorare il vocabolario divertendosi” di Elizabeth Lopez e Emma Ferrero

What are the neighbours like?" John asked the man who was trying to sell them the house. The man became nervous. "Well ... on the left there lives a man who has many dogs. The dogs are somewhat aggressive and he sets them free very often. And on the right live a group of friends who have a rock band."

Just at that moment, the Pérez family paid attention to the sounds of the neighbours. On one side, they heard the barks of dogs that scared the children. On the other side, they heard guitars and a very, very loud drummer that surely would not let them sleep. The Pérez family left that house quickly. The next house seemed perfect.

It's a very large house. It had four bedrooms, three bathrooms, a basement and an attic. John and Lucia were at the front door, discussing the price of the house with the owners, while their children explored the house. "I think the price is surprisingly low," said Lucia, somewhat worried. "Is it possible that the house has a problem?" she asked the owners seriously.

The owners exchanged a look and one of them said, "There are some rumours, but they are silly. Some people say the house is haunted." Although the adults tried to continue with the conversation, they could not avoid hearing how a heavy door closed with a strong bang that was heard throughout the house.

It was Luis's turn to laugh. "Unbelievable" He replied with a big smile. "And speaking of travellers, do you remember our Maths teacher, mr Lopez, and without waiting for an answer added, "he dropped out of school! He's travelling around Africa now. Some people say that it's a scientific trip, but i think he went crazy".

At the same time they heard the screams of the twins. A second later they could see Gabriel and Andrea running at full speed and did not stop until they were outside of the house. In the end, that wasn't the ideal house, either. The Pérez family continued visiting another house, looking for a new home.

They visited a house with a pool that was too expensive, a beautiful apartment that had strange holes in the ceiling, and a very large house that had no electricity. Finally, the Pérez family visited a last house. It was perfect.

“Well...” Amanda took a book out of her bag and showed it to Luis. It was a very popular book, the most famous of the moment. A book of short stories about the crazy lives and unexpected adventures of amazing characters.

Finally, the Pérez family visited a last house. It was perfect. It had three bedrooms, two bathrooms, and a beautiful backyard. The price was good, it was exactly the house they wanted. But, the owner of the house looked worried. “There is a problem,” the owner said to John and Lucia Infine, la famiglia Pérez visitò un’ultima casa.

News is coming from the east, south and west that could change, for better or for worse, the lives of everyone in the powerful North kingdom. This news could be of wars to come, or reciprocated loves, and broken hearts.

A big war to avoid, a castle to save, an engagement that is up in the air, and concern about the life of a loved one; They all create discussions and arguments at the castle. Sometimes we are like that, we believe that our problems are more important than other people’s.

The king, queen, princes, and princesses don’t escape from that, Everybody wants to be the one to open the letter with the news, but they shouldn’t worry. The little princess has the solution with her wit and why not, a little bit of magic.

Once upon a time, in an old kingdom called the North Kingdom, a family was having problems. This was the royal family, the king, the queen, a prince and two princesses. One day, a letter arrived at the castle, but this was a problem, because all the members of the royal family were expecting that the letter was for them.

The king was very anxious, because he was fighting with one of the neighbouring kingdoms. He had sent a very serious letter to the king of the East Kingdom. If the other king gave him a bad answer, both kingdoms could go to war.

Just as this planet has its mysteries, outer space and the sky have their mysteries as well. It’s because of this that one starry night, a little boy named Tomy lay down to look at his friend the moon; bright and beautiful.

But Tomy was scared he couldn’t see and admire the beauty and brightness of this friend the moon, who everyone was hoping to see that night as a full moon. When he couldn’t see the moon, Tomy shared his fear with his parents, neighbours, and a big group of the people until they reached a scientist from NASA.

None of them could explain what had happened. However, the little boy tomy did understand what was happening, and it was that his friend the moon had a mystery. The moon was hiding among the clouds and the stars because maybe she wanted privacy.

The moon was hiding among the clouds and the stars because maybe she wanted privacy. Or maybe she just wanted to give the stars space so that they could shine thatnight too, and let the clouds play aongst themselves, and then she would come back and let herself be seen.

One day the moon disappeared. It was a quiet night, and the sky was clear. The person who saw the moon disappear was a 5-year-old boy named Tomy. Tomy is a very curios boy. Tomy really likes nature. He likes to walk in the woods and he likes go to the beach.

Day and night Tomy likes to lie down on the soft grass in his backyard. Lying there, Tomy observes many things. By day, you can see the clouds. The clouds are white and they look soft and sometimes have fun shapes. At night Tomy studies the stars.

The stars shine from far away and Tomy never stops counting them. However on a very special night, Tomy was couting the stars and the moon caught his attention. The moon is beautiful. I t was a full moon. White shiny, perfect. Tomy continued to wacth the moon until it disappeared!

Coincidence, luck, or simply fate, as come people call it. It sometimes happens that on a trip, a simple bus trip, to visit a relative, you can meet the love of tour life, or it can be the beginning of a beautiful relationship.

This is what happened to Alejandro who was only concentraded on observing the landscape and enjoyng the trip. That is until, out of nowhere, he meets Claudia, a passenger that is young like him and who dazzles him and makes the trip more fun.

That is until, out of nowhere, he meets Claudia, a passenger that is young like him and who dazzles him and makes the trip more fun Whit her laughs and stories, she made the trip much nicer and pass very quickly. But in the end it left him full of doubts and sadness when she got off at a stop before him.

Alejandro didn't have time to go get to know more about this young woman that captivated him. He couldn't forgive himself for being so distracted, but, chance or fate, he decided to follow his intuition. When Alejandro got on the bus that would take him to his aunt and uncle's house, he never imagined that this life could be about to change.

He was carrying with him a small backpack with his clothes and gifts for his aunt and uncle. Alejandro lived in a big city, he would have to travel for about four hours and go through several smaller towns to get to the city where his aunt and uncle live.

Once he arrived there, Alejandro had plans to spend the afternoon with his aunt and uncle, go out for a walk and to eat, talk and laugh together. He would stay that night at their house and return the next day, as he had already done hundreds of times. But this time, it would be different.

On the bus, Alejandro sat more or less in the middle of the bus, in a seat by the window, and waited for the trip to begin. A few minutes before the bus set off, a young woman approached him and sat next to him, as the bus was almost totally full.

Alejandro smiled at the young woman and being a gentleman said, "Would you like the seat by the window?" To his surprise, the young woman shook her head, "I actually get dizzy by the windows. Thank you" she said and after somehow she introduced herself "My name is Claudia, pleased to meet you". "A pleasure. I am Alejandro" said the young man.

There's nothing better than going out with family on a sunny day. We all enjoy an afternoon with our loved ones. When it is a family of birds, the adventures can be a lot of fun, especially when they go to zoo. For a little bird that is still learning how to fly, everything at the zoo is new and marvellous.

Even more so when we get to know all the entertaining stories that the animals who live there are going to share. From the branches of the trees, our family of birds is going to meet the funny monkeys, the fiery lion, the terrifying snakes, the crazy sheep, the giant elephants, and more.

They will all have so many things to tell and so many secrets to reveal to the little bird. He is going to learn about the life at the zoo that the humans don't know about. A beautiful walk, a new world to discover and a tasty bag of popcorn to finish a good day with the family.

Every family with kids, you expect that as they grow up, there will be more demands on the house. This is the case of the Pérez family; with twins they were starting to have some problems with the space and time in some areas of the house like the bathroom and the kitchen.

This is why they decided to make some changes that would benefit the entire family. This is how the Pérez family decided to change their apartment. But they discovered that they shouldn't trust first impressions, but they have to be cautious, curious and observant.

Only in that way do they see that you can't always have what you want, and sometimes, the most desired things don't arrive out of chance or luck, but because they were destined in order to make the wishes of each person come true. In the end, they found a comfortable house, with a backyard and, as a gift for John and Lucia's intuitions, pets included. So they were all happy with their new home.

The Pérez family want to buy a new house. Until now, the family were living in an apartment. The apartment is small. It has two bedrooms, one in which the parents, John and Lucia sleep, and the other room is shared by the twins, Gabriel and Andrea. The apartment only has one bathroom, and that was a problem, because everyone wanted to use it.

"You're taking too long!" Andrea used to complain, knocking on the door for her brother to let her use the bathroom. The twins had turned seven years old; they are already big children. When the whole family goes to the kitchen, they bump into each other. Also, the children want a pet.

"Mum, we need a backyard, because I want us to have a dog," Andrea said one day. "Felines don't need a backyard," added his brother, "and I want a tiger." "Son, tigers are not good pets," Lucia tried to explain. "Maybe we could adopt a cat." "No," Gabriel shook his head, "I want a tiger." So, when John and Lucia saved enough money, they decided to buy a house.

However, that turned into an adventure that neither of them had expected. The first house was very beautiful. It is a small house, but bigger than the Pérez family's apartment. The house had two bedrooms, two bathrooms, and a small garden opposite. The price was very low; so low that John suspected that the house had some problem.

"I am selling the house because I have to leave the country. I cannot take my beloved pets with me. I was hoping that those who buy the house would want to adopt my dog and my cat." John and Lucia exchanged a look.

They didn't look very happy, they looked worried. However, when they turned to look at their children in order to discuss the situation, they were surprised. There was a cat sitting on Gabriel's legs and

Andrea was playing with a dog; the four of them looked very happy. "I think it's a deal," John said and laughed happily. "A new house is enough space for the family to grow, don't you think?"
